

family in Flat at Cottonwood.

Mrs. Agoff was born June 28, 1943, in Long Island, N.Y.

Agoff

She moved to Stewart, Fla., in 1947, then Hialeah, Fla., where she finished her bachelor's degree in nursing.

Mrs. Agoff ventured to Alaska as a young woman in 1966 and became a respected and well-loved public health nurse for the community of Tanana for several years, her family said.

She married her true love, Alvin Agoff from Flat, on Jan. 27, 1968. They resided in Prince Creek for 31 years, mining gold and raising two daughters, Cady and Christy. They eventually migrated to Palmer in 1979 for the winters so the girls could attend school. The Agoffs continue their family home at Prince Creek.

Her family said, "She loved the outdoors and was game for anything. She was full of life, mischief and humor. She was always cheerful and loved to gather her family and friends around for wonderful dinners to share stories and memories of life in Flat. Kathy's family was her world. Her friends have the deepest respect, love and loyalty for her. She will be dearly missed by her family and many friends."

Mrs. Agoff was well-known for her work with both Sacred Heart and St. Michael's Catholic churches in Palmer, as well as the Valley Christian Coalition. She earned a master's degree in pastoral ministry from Loyola University.

She is survived by her husband, Alvin, and daughters, Cady and Christiana, mother, Katherine Coyle and brother, Tom Coyle, sisters-in-law, Ruth Agoff, Elizabeth Agoff, Diana and Renee Coyle, nephews, Max, Nick and Edward Agoff, Mathew, David, Rob, Edward and Michael Coyle, nieces, Edith Agoff, Lena Agoff-Orlowsky, and Judy and Katie Coyle.

Contact: St. Michael's Catholic Church in Palmer at 745-3229 for any questions. Cards and other memories may be sent to P.O. Box 2791, Palmer 99645.

KATHLEEN MARY AGOFF
Longtime Alaskan Kathleen Mary Agoff died Oct. 7, 1998, at Providence Alaska Medical Center.

A vigil service will be held at 7 p.m. Sunday at Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Wasilla. A Mass of Christian Burial is scheduled for 2 p.m. Monday at St. Michael's Catholic Church in Palmer with the Rev. Stanley Allie officiating. Burial services will be held at a later date by her