LARRY DAVIS is interviewed by Greg Finstead, Kute Kulland and Bill Schneider. Also present was Pete Terzi. Greg, Kute, & Pete are working on the Reader Headers Project. Greg & Pete are PALRM employees - Kute is w/ IAB and Bill w/ the Rasmuson Library ORNL History Project. The interview was at the Reader Project home in Nome.

LARRY's father was a herder in the Deering Area and Larry traveled w/ him as a boy. LARRY herds now in the Nome area and has one of the few herds that hasn't been devastated by Caribou.

He talks about early day herding and about modern herding - Tells about the herder crash before war and about the current crisis. He talks about the importance of herding to Community & family life. The interview was facilitated by Greg who has worked w/LARRY for a long time.
