Nathan Hadley Sr. was interviewed by Rose Fossdick and Bill Schneider at his home in Buckland.

Nathan was getting ready to head to Kitzline for dog racing so was a bit rushed but he gave us a large amount of his time.

Nathan's dad ^{Paul Hadley} was a herder and he grew up herding w/ him.

He was remember herding until he went into the military ^{in the 60's} and then returned to help w/herding. (discharged in 1964) He took over the ^{Pennington} herding.

He speaks in detail about his relationship w/ the deers and how he ~~herded~~ ^{traveled} w/ sled dogs. Like other people interviewed, he told about how ~~Caribou~~ ^{Caribou} started coming into the country and he ranked Caribou as more of a danger than was wolves or bears.
