Oral History Gift and Release Agreement

Thank you for your generous contribution of knowledge to the Oral History Archives. We welcome the opportunity to accession into the archives the audio recordings known as the Yarber-Madison Collection. The Oral History Archives agrees to preserve all the recordings in this collection and make them available to the public.

In consideration of the role of the Archives in preserving and making these recordings available, we ask you to agree to the following:

I, Yvonne Yarber, transfer and convey to the University of Alaska Fairbanks' Rasmuson Library my rights, title and interest to the recordings.

I also agree to hold the University of Alaska Fairbanks harmless for how it makes the recordings available and how it reproduces, preserves, and makes them available. I further acknowledge that I have been informed of the following:

- The Oral History Program makes recordings available to researchers, writers, scholars, students, and the interested public.
- The Library may make this recording electronically accessible via local area networks, the Internet, or other electronic means for access and preservation purposes.
- While the Library only intends to make the recordings available for educational and/or non-commercial purposes, by signing this form I release the Library and the University from liability in cases where individuals who access a recording might violate these conditions.

Should the Library be approached by a commercial company wishing to use the material (for example for a documentary film or broadcast program) the Library will make its best efforts to contact you for your permission. In return, I, Yvonne Yarber Carter will keep the library informed of my most up-to-date contact information.

None of the above mentioned conditions restricts you from re-telling and/or recording again any of the information you gave on this recording.

I have read and accept both the terms of the Oral History Gift and Release agreement as well as the Interview Restrictions provided.
