DATE: 4-17-75

Dear Jim:

We are returning the Certificates to you to be signed when the copyright transactions have been completed.

We will put this memo in our pending file and check with you in a couple of months.

Paul McCarthy University Archivist and Curator of Manuscripts

P.S. Hope things are going well for you Regarding your book - hope such the best!

Paul –
By actual time count,
there are 45 hours of
tape rather than 30.
This should be charged on this agreement, & though copyright transactions are still
"in the process." I will sign & return.

Jim

CERTIFICATE OF GIFT

James D. Greiner (Name) of 7 mi. Chena Ridge Road Fairbanks (City), Alaska (State) 99701 convey(s) to the University of Alaska the following:

30 audio tape cassettes containing 45 hours of recorded interviews between James Greiner and Don Sheldon (including a 20 minute interview between Greiner and Ray Genet) discussing Don Sheldon's life and career in aviation recorded between February 1, 1973 and November 30, 1974, known as Accession #75-30.

as an unrestricted gift, and transfer(s) to the University legal title, copyright and literary property right in the collection in so far as I/we hold them except as noted below.

Restrictions or exemptions:

During the lifetime of James D. Greiner prior to 1995, use is restricted to researchers who have received express written permission of James D. Greiner. After July 1, 1995, researchers may receive permission to use the tapes on an unrestricted basis; researchers will be responsible for compliance with provisions of literary property rights and/or copyright for any use of the material.

I/we agree that any materials in the collection described judged inappropriate to the Manuscript Collection or general library collections may be disposed of by the library as it sees fit. Except as provided expressly in this agreement, this gift is unrestricted and unconditional.
