

Still on mining venture (very short lived!). HIS mining got drowned out after he and two partners (Eddie Austin and Fred Wooden) just got going. They were mining on "Steamboat Pup" at 4 below discovery. Got washed out by high water

Old car: Chalmers Detroit, 1908 model. Dr. Cassil brought it into Fairbanks. Fred Noyes acquired it and gave it to Charley's father who passed it on to Charley. First car Charley remembers is the "RED Devil", Dave Quartermarsh's car (he was the cross-eyed barber). The Red Devil was a Maxwell and it came to Fairbanks in 1910, he thinks..

Henry Ray was city clerk in 1904, Charley thinks.

Any murders? A wood chopper murdered at what is now called Deadman's slough and a little French girl from the Fifth Avenue "Line" was killed...only ones in early days Charley remembers.

Tells about bringing cattle to Fairbanks via Valdez Trail.

Recalls Bobby Sheldon and Tom Gibson the first to drive automobiles over the Valdez Trail.

(Louie Black back again and tells story about the "Oregon Mare" who ran the Ozark Apartments in Fairbanks...~~xxx~~ her name was Mrs. Edity O'Neil after her marriage. He also tells about the Oregon Kid at Flat and Belgian Louise in Iditarod).
