Dear Bill,

I am writing in reference to 2 tapes which were sent to you from the conference, "Seeing with the Native Eye." These tapes may be listened to in the library but cannot be copied for patrons to remove from the library, nor may they be broadcast. Transcripts are available in the conference proceedings and this is the source which should be used for reference and quotation purposes. In the latter case, standard referencing and crediting procedures are to be followed.

Thank you for your interest in the conference.

Sincerely,
