RE: Brown bag, 7th fl. conference room, Gruening bldg., February 23, 1988

Louis and Eva Frank of the Kyuquot Band of the Nuuchahnulth Indians of Vancouver Island will be the guests at a brown bag discussion in the 7th floor conference room, Gruening building, from 12-2:00 pm, on Tuesday, February 23rd. As an elder, Mr. Frank is a primary person involved in developing and running the Kakawis Family Development Centre. This discussion will provide an excellent opportunity to learn about indigenous methods of working with families. All interested parties are invited and we urge all of you to share this with others you think might be interested.
